

“I work hard to provide my clients with the most positive real estate experience possible”

Whether you're searching for your dream home or selling your current property, Kelly Wheeler will make you her No. 1 priority. With “concierge style” service, integrity and dedication to client satisfaction, she'll work with you every step of the way — from listing to showing and from searching to closing.

“I work hard to provide my clients with the most positive real estate experience possible — whether they're buying, selling or both,” she says. “My goal is to take the stress out of your real estate transaction and make the entire process easy and seamless.”

Kelly uses traditional high-end marketing along with the latest social media platforms and networking opportunities to find just what you're looking for in a new home or to get the best offer possible on your current property. It's what sets her apart as a sought-after Luxury Home Agent in the Dallas-Fort Worth area.

That and her careful, but aggressive negotiation skills.

“You need an agent with tough, thoughtful negotiating ability as well as one who knows how to stick it out through high and low markets,” she points out. “I take great pride in helping my clients get the most for their home when selling and the best price when buying.”

A graduate of the Realtor Institute (GRI) and a certified Luxury Home Marketing Specialist, Kelly recently shared her success with more than 6,000 Realtors® at an international conference, explaining that continual training is paramount to stay up with the ever-changing real estate industry.

Kelly and her team at Wheeler Professionals-RE/MAX Trinity will reach more than $7 million in sales in 2015. Call her anytime for a consultation on the value of your property or to begin the search for that just-right place to call home.
