Vero Beach Featured in National Media

“#2 Best Place to Buy In The Nation”

Balmy weather, low property taxes and a cost of living 3% lower than nearby West Palm Beach make this coastal town an affordable place to live with sandy shores and the best surfing on the East Coast.

-Business 2.0 Magazine in 2006

“An Unsung Florida Getaway”

Vero Beach is a quiet getaway for the wealthy away from the flashy glitz of Miami and Palm Beach County. Vero's dual communities make for an interesting mix-there are kitschy seafood joints & biker bars alongside designer boutiques & fine dining.

-Wall Street Journal 2009

“Undervalued Cities”

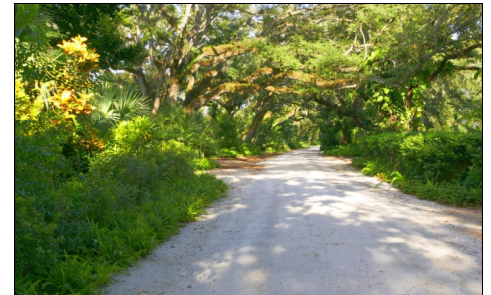

The second most undervalued city in the country is Vero Beach with homes selling 39.8% below fair market value.

-CNNMoney.com 2010

“Instead of Investing Money in the Turbulent Stock Market, Vero Beach Real Estate is a Far Safer Bet”

Investors are buying real estate for 10 to 17 cents on the dollar and expect to sell it at 35 cents on the dollar in the future. This is because of Vero Beach's attractive demographics, affordability, inventory levels and favorable incomes.

-CNBC Street Signs Show 2009

Fast Facts On Vero Beach

- The May 2006 issue of Kiplinger's Personal Finance magazine ranked Vero Beach fourth in the nation among cities with the highest concentration of the wealthiest households, with 14% being millionaires.
- In March 2007, CNBC and MSNBC.com ran a segment specifically on Vero Beach, labeling the area as “Miami's version of the Hamptons.”
- In February, Indian River County resident Gerhard Andlinger ranked No.17 on “The Chronicle of Philanthropy's 50 Americans Who Gave the Most in 2008.” New York-based Peter Peterson, who owns property in Indian River County, ranked No. 3.
- Famous Vero Beach celebrities include writer Carl Hiaasen, singer actress Bernadette Peters, singer Gloria Estefan and folk music legend Arlo Guthrie.

Vero Beach: Best of the Florida Lifestyle

Vero Beach offers the best of both worlds: a small town atmosphere with the amenities of a large city. Weekly outdoor festivals & concerts, seaside boutiques, kitschy seafood restaurants casually combine with malls, movie theaters, and chain restaurants.

Easy access to our plentiful sandy beaches.

Year-round fishing, boating, golfing, tennis, biking, kayaking, sunning and outdoor living!

Communities to meet every lifestyle.

Boating communities w/docks, slips, marinas.

Golf course communities with estate homes tucked along rolling green golf courses designed by famous pros in the golf world.

Tennis communities with Har-Tru courts and tennis pros to help you perfect your game.

Beachy communities tucked along the ocean so you can walk to your private beach.

Resort-style communities with all amenities outside your doorstep from golf to tennis to boating to pool and clubhouse to fine dining.

The Great Outdoors

Swimming, fishing, boating, surfing, and scuba diving are only a few of the recreational opportunities available to you in Vero Beach. There are numerous golf courses and tennis courts throughout the city. Try our hiking & biking trails, riverside camping & seaside picnic facilities available to you year-round.

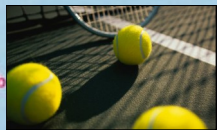

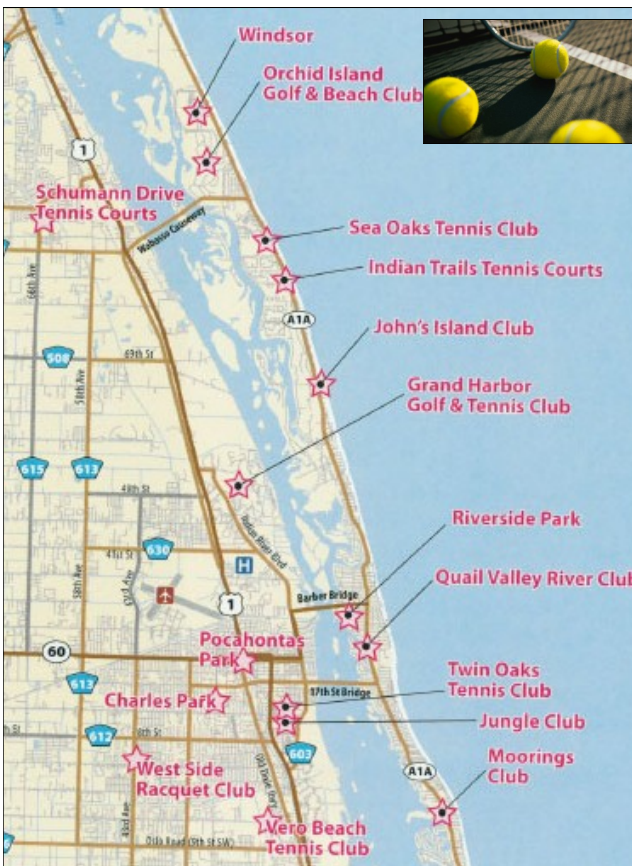

Kayaking-numerous kayak rental shops offer guided & self-guided tours.

Surfing-the hottest spot in Florida for surfing is the Sebastian Inlet, which holds numerous competitions throughout the year. There are plenty of surf shops get your gear.

Scuba Diving-great dive sites extend from the Sebastian Inlet to Round Island including coral and artificial reefs and the site of the 1715 wreck of the Spanish galleon.

Beaches-there are plenty of public beaches where you can find sun bathers, shell collectors & treasure hunters with metal detectors.

Tennis-See the map on the left for a tennis court near you!

Boating-water is the main attraction and there are plenty public boat ramps and marinas with boat rentals available.

Golf-there are 19 public and private courses throughout the area.

Biking-enjoy the warm weather and bike one of our picturesque trails.

Fishing-there are various fishing piers throughout the area. Deep sea charters are great for the sport fisherman looking to catch wahoo, marlin, dolphin, tuna and kingfish. Numerous sportfishing tournaments are held throughout the year.

Jungle Trail-winds along the north end of the barrier island for 7.5 scenic miles and is great for biking.

Airboat Tours-see animals in their natural habitat in the marshlands. Come face to face with an alligator!

Parks & Recreation

Vero Beach is a community that is embraced by nature. Our Atlantic beaches, islands and inland parks offer peaceful settings for viewing wildlife and enjoying family picnics. Since 1990 approximately 7,500 additional acres of conservation have been acquired by our county, most of which are open to the public. In total, the county maintains 41 parks; the City of Vero Beach maintains 15 parks; and the State of Florida maintains 3 parks within Indian River County.

From Round Island to Sebastian Inlet, Indian River County has approximately 22.4 miles of barrier island beaches.

Public Pools

Ready to Own a Little Piece of Paradise? Let me help you!!!

Megan Raasveldt, REALTOR. CDPE, CSP, I.R.E.S., SRES

After exploring all four corners of the country, I decided 10 years ago to settle down and grow some roots. I would not know how lucky I was to find such a little known slice of paradise the place to call home. For almost a decade I have been helping hundreds of clients grow their own roots in this great community. I specialize in listening to my customers needs, and taking the time to make their dreams a reality. In the difficult real estate climate we have been experiencing, my business has thrived through dedication, hard work, and a client first mentality. Being a part of the number one company in Indian River County, Dale Sorensen Real Estate has also been an important part of my success. I hope to be able to assist you in your real estate needs very soon!
