REALTOR Tony Lyerly Attends Prestigious International Conference

(Reno, Nev.)— Recently, Tony Lyerly of RE/MAX Realty Affiliates joined a select group of international real estate professionals gathered at the Fall Business Conference of the International Real Estate Federation, US Chapter (FIABCI-USA) in downtown Seattle, Wash. for a fall business conference to discuss important markets and trends in international real estate while networking with fellow global real estate professionals. He met there with fellow Chapter members and guests involved in every aspect and type of real estate from across the United States, as well as international colleagues from the Dominican Republic, China, Vietnam, the Philippines, Japan, Germany, and Canada.

Hot topics during the meeting included: EB-5 visas; evaluating international markets; foreign investment in Seattle; harnessing the Internet for real estate through the use of blogging and web-based social and professional networks; and “branding” yourself and your business in an increasingly diverse global market.

Through its individual, academic, company, and professional association members in 65 countries, FIABCI members have access to real estate professionals in all specialties around the world. FIABCI-USA (the US Chapter) is the only international real estate organization representing the entire spectrum of the real estate industry in the US. FIABCI’s mission is to open the international community to its members on a local, national, and international level, so that they may develop a broad base of real estate contacts that will translate into increased business opportunities and, ultimately, financial success.

For more information on FIABCI, visit www.fiabci-usa.com or email info@fiabci-usa.com.

Tony Lyerly has been active in real estate sales for more than 20 years and works in the Reno/Sparks areas. He also holds ABR, CIPS, CRS, GRI and RSPS designations and has won awards as 100% Club and is recognized as a leading sales producer in northern Nevada. He can be reached at 775-224-4520.
