RE/MAX AGENT KELLY WERNER EARNS HALL OF FAME AWARD

Reno, Nevada 9/22/2010 - Kelly Werner, with RE/MAX Realty Affiliates, has recently been presented with the RE/MAX Hall of Fame Award, which honors successful agents who have earned more than $1 million in commissions during their careers with the company.

Werner has been working in the real estate industry for more than 24 years and has extensive experience in the luxury home market, particularly the Mount Rose corridor. Werner has received many awards but her most recent accomplishment is placing in the Top 25 Producers in the Southwest Region. Werner holds the Certified Residential Specialist (CRS) and the Certified Distressed Property Expert (CDPE) designations.

“Werner has been an integral member of our team and is more than deserving of this very prestigious award,” said Amy Lessinger, Broker/Owner, of RE/MAX Realty Affiliates. “Winning this award is a tremendous accomplishment and Werner continues to raise the bar in real estate, making us, and this community proud.”

In addition, Werner actively supports the Children’s Miracle Network and the Nevada Humane Society. Her greatest accomplishment has been raising her outstanding daughter who is now a thriving student at the University of Nevada, Reno. Werner also cares for her elderly father.

RE/MAX has nearly 100,000 agents in more than 75 countries who continue to out-produce the competition, averaging more sales than other real estate agents. With one of the most recognized brands in the world and one of the most trafficked web sites, www.remax.com, RE/MAX leads the industry with experienced, professional agents – agents who are trained and educated through the award-winning RE/MAX University.
