FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

DONNA CLARK AWARDED WITH CRS MEDALLION

Reno, Nev. (December 9, 2015) – RE/MAX Realty Affiliates agent Donna Clark has been presented with the Council of Residential Specialists (CRS) Medallion Award.

The Medallion Award recognizes CRS designees who not only have excelled in their real estate careers, but have also volunteered their time and expertise to serve the Council and its members. To be eligible for this award, nominees must have 15 years of continuous membership with the Council and tangible volunteer service for the Council at the local levels. Clark's award pin will be presented during the Council's Inaugural and Award reception at the Conference in November 2016.

"I earned my CRS designation in 1999, because education through CRS courses is the proven path to success. I know how important it is for REALTORS® to have advanced training to be successful in this career. It's an honor to have served on both the National and local levels and have lead our Chapter to Medium Chapter of the Year in 2010," said Clark.

"This award has been well earned by Donna," said RRA Broker-Owner Amy Lessinger. "Her dedication time to CRS, our community and her clients are the keys to a successful business in real estate."

Clark has been a real estate agent since graduating from the University of California - Berkeley in 1979 and is licensed in both Nevada and California. In addition to the CRS, she has earned her Accredited Buyer's Representative (ABR) and Certified Distressed Property Expert (CDPE) certifications, and has served on the Board of Directors for the Reno Sparks Association of REALTORS®.
