

DMCA Notice

If you believe that your intellectual property rights have been violated by the Black Hills Association of REALTORS® or by a third party who has uploaded content on our Site, please provide the following information to our designated copyright agent listed below:

1. A description of the copyrighted work or other intellectual property that you claim has been infringed;
2. A description of where the material that you claim is infringing is located on the Site;
3. An address, a telephone number, and an email address where we may contact you and, if different, an email address where the alleged infringing party, other than us, may contact you;
4. A statement that you have a good-faith belief that the use is not authorized by the copyright or other intellectual property rights owner, by its agent, or by law;
5. A statement by you under penalty of perjury that the information in your notice is accurate and that you are the copyright or intellectual property owner or are authorized to act on the owner's behalf;
6. Your electronic or physical signature.

We may request additional information before removing any infringing material. We may provide the alleged infringing party with your e-mail address so that that person can respond to your allegations.

The Black Hills Association of REALTORS® has registered a designated agent with the Copyright Office pursuant to 17 U.S.C. 512(c).
