

MEMBERSHIP BILL OF RIGHTS

The rights of members shall include, but not be limited to:

The right to vote in elections of the Board of Directors and to vote in any recall question concerning the members of the Board of Directors;

The right to vote on any proposed amendment of the bylaws;

The right to receive the services and benefits of the ASSOCIATION;

The right to be protected against personal derogation, violation of privacy or intimidation;

The right to participate in leadership procedures according to the terms of these bylaws;

The right to present proposals and to advocate their acceptance by the ASSOCIATION;

The right to due process in the functioning of the ASSOCIATION;

The right to obtain information concerning the actions of the Board of Directors, the operations of the ASSOCIATION and the finances of the ASSOCIATION. Member's rights shall not be abrogated, nor shall they be lost even if not fully exercised, nor may these rights be surrendered or bargained away, nor may anyone be permitted to violate these rights.