

CHRISTINE BAKER

Christine has made her mark in the San Diego and Coronado real estate markets by paying exceptional attention to her client's needs and secondly having extensive knowledge of the luxury real estate market. Aligned with the premiere and locally owned real estate broker, Willis Allen Real Estate, she not only has the skill set but the sophisticated marketing/technology tools and global affiliations that support her success as a top producer. With over $100M in sales volume in her 10-year career, she has been recognized by the San Diego Association of Realtors as a Top Producer in 2016, 2017, 2018 and is well on her way for 2019. Giving back to her community is an important part of Christine's personal goals. She has served as the President of Friends of Downtown for 8 years leading this non-profit in their mission to promote education and provide scholarships for San Diego City College students. She, along with her Board of Directors, has raised and awarded over $600,000 for deserving City College Students. Christine's dynamic yet warm personality, facilitates strong relationships and she is incredibly well respected among her clients and colleagues for her integrity, confidentiality and professionalism.

“Buying real estate is not only the best way, the quickest way, the safest way, but the only way to become wealthy.”
