CHRISTINE BAKER

Christine Baker is a top producing agent at Willis Allen Real Estate and is highly respected in the industry for her knowledge, integrity and reputation in the luxury real estate market. She's been interviewed by the Wall Street Journal, San Diego Business Journal and many other publications and social sites for her perspective on real estate market updates and trends. Through Willis Allen's exclusive relationship with Luxury Portfolio International (LPI), Christine has an unmatched global reach to national and international real estate colleagues, buyers and sellers. Along with that, LPI offers a wealth of premiere marketing tools, market research and information on luxury trends. But what truly differentiates Christine from other successful real estate professionals is her expertise and the caring, professional service she provides all her clients. The warmth and genuine concern for her clients wellbeing earns her continued and new referral business. Having lived in a variety of communities in San Diego over the last 36 years, Christine and her husband now call Coronado home. Taking walks along the beach and playing a round of golf are how she relaxes and rejuvenates to always be on "top of her game". One of Christine's favorite quotes which reflects her professional life ...

*"I didn't get there by wishing for it or hoping for it, but by working for it".
